INTRODUCTION

Articles should be between 5,000 and 8,000 words long excluding notes¹, bibliography and captions for illustrations. Font style Palatino Linotype, size 11.

The author-date system is more common in the sciences and social sciences. In this system, sources are briefly cited in the text, usually in parentheses, by author's last name and year of publication. Each in-text citation matches up with an entry in a reference list, where full bibliographic information is provided. (The Chicago Manual of Style, n.d)
